

Get in Line to Do Your Part Volunteer

PACT: Police & Clergy Team

The Police and Clergy Team (PACT) is a faith-based organization supporting the Houston Police Department (HPD) focusing on Southwest Houston to improve the safety and wellbeing of the community through the deterrence of crime by providing emotional and spiritual support with social resources to any person affected by crime or disaster

PACT meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month during the lunch hour. Anyone interested in attending a meeting to find out more about PACT can email Barry Curtis at bcurtis@policeandclergy.com.

PACT concentrates their efforts on positive support programs that include, but are not limited to:

- Call Outs – PACT responds to the Houston Police Department's request for assistance in a crisis.
- Ride-A-Longs – Collaborating with officers on Patrol on a consistent basis providing community outreach for: Counseling youth and adults regarding the consequences of criminal behavior, and parenting skills.
- Residential Intervention – PACT trained team members are building relationships in the community through Apartment Resident Teams, After-School Programs, and Educational Programs

Current supports include: Bethel Family Church, Braeswood Assembly of God, Westbury Church of Christ, LifeChange International, Chapelwood United Methodist Church, Westbury Baptist Church, Houston Baptist University Campus Chapel, Chabad LaJavitch Center, Primera Iglesia Hispana Pentecostes, and Restorative Justice Alliance.

PACT is a wonderful networking opportunity that allows collaboration and cooperation between churches, ministries, the Houston Police Department and a wide variety of social services agencies.

For Volunteer Information

Contact Officer
Barry Curtis or
Lt. Mattie
Provost at 713-448-0305.